(the foregoing is collectively referred to herein as the “Kodiak EDC Security Agreements”).

Demand and Forbearance

26. As of the summer of 2018, Kodiak Partnership and Kodiak Wireline were in default of their respective loan agreements with ATB.

27. On or about July 26, 2018, ATB, through its legal counsel, made demand of Kodiak in respect of their obligations owing to ATB and issued notices of intention to enforce security in accordance with section 244 of the BIA.

28. On August 7, 2018, ATB entered into a forbearance agreement with Kodiak, (the “Forbearance Agreement”), for the purpose of allowing time to obtain additional funds through either or a combination of a sale of the assets of Kodiak USA or an equity injection.

29. Pursuant to the Forbearance Agreement, each member of Kodiak acknowledged and agreed that the ATB Indebtedness was due and payable and that the Kodiak ATB Guarantees and the Kodiak ATB Security Agreements (excluding the Security Agreement provided by Kodiak USA, which was not in existence at the time) were valid and enforceable. Additionally, it was a term of the Forbearance Agreement that, upon an event of default, ATB would have the immediate right, without further notice, to enforce and appoint a receiver over the Kodiak’s assets and undertakings.

30. Kodiak defaulted under the terms of the Forbearance Agreement due to Kodiak ceasing operations and that the Forbearance Agreement expired through the effluxion of time.

The Commencement of the Receivership Proceedings

31. On January 10, 2019, ATB brought an application to appoint a receiver and manager over the assets, properties, and undertakings of Kodiak Partnership, Kodiak Wireline, Kodiak Solutions, Kodiak Tools, and 162 Alberta (the “Initial Receivership Entities”), and a hearing was held in the Canadian Court in respect thereof.

32. On January 10, 2019, the Canadian Court granted an order (the “Initial Receivership Order”) in the Receivership Proceeding appointing Ernst & Young Inc. as interim receiver and receiver and manager of the all of the Initial Receivership Entities’ current and future assets, undertakings, and properties of every nature and kind whatsoever, and wherever situate, including all proceeds thereof (collectively, the “Initial Property”).

33. The Initial Receivership Entities had each consented to the Initial Receivership Order.

34. The Initial Receivership Order expressly granted ATB leave to apply to the Canadian Court for an order appointing a receiver and manager over the current and future assets, undertakings, and properties of Kodiak USA.

35. On March 13, 2019, ATB brought an application to appoint Ernst & Young Inc. as receiver and manager over the assets, properties, and undertakings of Kodiak USA and a hearing was held in the Canadian Court in respect thereof.

36. On March 13, 2019, the Canadian Court amended the Initial Receivership Order (the Initial Receivership Order, as amended, being the “Receivership Order”) in the Receivership Proceeding expanding the Initial Receivership Order to appoint Ernst & Young Inc. as receiver and manager of the all of Kodiak USA’s (collectively with the Initial Receivership Entities, the “Receivership Parties”) current and future assets, undertakings, and properties of every nature and kind whatsoever, and wherever situate, including all proceeds thereof (collectively with the Initial Property, the “Property”).

37. A true and correct certified copy of the Receivership Order is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

The Receivership

38. Pursuant to the Receivership Order, the Receiver is empowered and authorized, but not obligated, to act at once in respect of the Property, including:

- a. to take possession of and exercise control over the Property and any and all proceeds, receipts and disbursements arising out of or from the Property;

- b. to receive, preserve and protect the Property, or any part or parts thereof;
- c. to manage, operate and carry on the business of the Receivership Parties;
- d. to receive and collect all monies and accounts now owed or hereafter owing to the Receivership Parties;
- e. to market any or all of the Property;
- f. to sell, convey, transfer, lease or assign the Property or any part or parts thereof out of the ordinary course of business;
- g. to apply for any vesting order or other orders necessary to convey the Property or any part or parts thereof to a purchaser or purchasers thereof, free and clear of any liens or encumbrances affecting such Property;
- h. to exercise any shareholder, partnership, joint venture or other rights which the Receivership Parties may have; and
- i. to take any steps reasonably incidental to the exercise of these powers or the performance of any statutory obligations, and in each case where the Receiver takes any such actions or steps, it is exclusively authorized and empowered to do so, to the exclusion of all other individuals, firms, corporations, government bodies or agencies, or other entities having notice of the Receivership Order, including the Receivership Parties.

39. Pursuant to the BIA, the Receiver is an independent officer of the Canadian Court and acts on behalf of all creditors of Kodiak. The Receiver is to secure and monetize Kodiak's assets to maximize realization for distribution to creditors entitled to same. Also pursuant to the BIA, the Receiver is obligated to file reports with the Canadian Court and the Superintendent of Bankruptcy, the federal regulator in Canada, on the progress of, and major events that occur during, the Receivership Proceeding.

40. To that end, the Receiver is in the process of inspecting Kodiak's books and records, taking possession of the Property, identifying potential creditors in Canada and the US, notifying them of the Receivership Proceeding where necessary or appropriate, and determining the complete body of claims against the Property and their priority.

41. The Receiver is also in the process of undertaking a marketing process in respect of the Property with a view to identifying one or more suitable buyers and completing sale transactions in respect of the Property. The Receiver has commenced a sales process with respect to certain of the Property located in Canada. In most cases, pursuant to the Receivership Order, the Receiver will require approval of the Canadian Court for each significant sale transaction and will seek from the Canadian Court a vesting order, delivering title to the assets free and clear of the claims of all creditors. To the extent required, an order recognizing such sale as to assets located in the United States will be sought from this Court.

Treatment of Creditor Claims and Distribution of Proceeds within the Receivership Proceeding

42. The Receiver has a duty to undertake a review of any and all secured claims, charges or liens in respect of all assets comprising the Property to determine their validity, extent and priority. Once this is done, the Receiver will seek the approval of the Canadian Court, on notice to the Receivership Parties and other parties in interest, to distribute the proceeds of all sales of the Property to any secured creditors in accordance with the priority of all such claims, including the claims of the Receiver (if any) in respect of its priority charges under the Receivership Order related to costs of administering the Receivership. Any proceeds in excess of secured claims will be distributed by Canadian Court order. Thus, no funds or assets will be distributed to ATB, EDC, or others without supervision by and approval of the Canadian Court.

43. The Receiver is currently aware that ATB, EDC, and certain equipment lessors assert secured claims over the Property, and the Receiver continues to review the Debtors' books and records and other relevant sources, such as the relevant personal property security registries in the United States and Canada, to ensure all secured creditors are identified.

44. The Receiver does not expect any funds to remain for distribution to unsecured creditors. If sale proceeds remain after payments are made to all identified secured creditors, as contemplated above, the Receiver would likely seek to conduct a claims process, either through the Receivership Proceeding or by filing for bankruptcy in respect of the Debtors, for the purpose of distributing proceeds to unsecured creditors of each Debtor on a pro rata basis, through the Canadian Court. I am informed that such ratable distribution is similar to what would occur in the United States. Additionally, if a creditor wished to object to the Receiver's adjudication of his or her claim, such creditor would have a right to be heard in the Canadian Court.

45. If such a claims process is not undertaken, unsecured creditors would retain their claims against the Receivership Parties such that the rights of unsecured creditors to assert their claims against the Debtors would be unaffected by the Receivership Order and the Receivership Proceeding.

46. In my view, the claims process outlined above, as overseen by the Canadian Court, would be efficient in terms of the costs to the Debtors and diminution of proceeds available to creditors, fair to all creditors of the Debtors, whether Canadian or American, and appropriate in the circumstances. For this reason, the Receiver requests that this Court permit all claims to be administered under Canadian law and to be overseen by the Canadian Court in respect of secured and unsecured claims against all the Debtors, without the requirement of an additional claims process to be run through the Chapter 15 Cases.

Center of Main Interest and Assets Located in the US

47. Historically, and for the majority of its life, Kodiak's Canadian and US operations were integrated and primarily conducted out of Canada. It is only recently, since the summer of 2018, that management of the Canadian and US operations have been separated. The majority of Kodiak's shareholders, ultimately responsible for its operations, are located in Alberta, Canada. The major creditors of both the Canadian Debtors and Kodiak USA are ATB and EDC. These entities are both Canadian and both offered credit based upon, and at a time when, Kodiak's Canadian and US operations were consolidated and managed primarily in Canada.

48. Certain equipment and other Property covered by the Receivership Order are also located on the lands covered by the Midland Lease. Additionally, it appears that certain property of the Canadian Debtors has been moved to Midland, Texas and is located on the property subject to the Midland Lease and under the control of Kodiak USA. It further appears that some property of a di minimus value of Kodiak USA may have been transferred to Alberta.

49. The Receiver has not yet identified any US Accounts which have cash on deposit that is covered by the Receivership Order, though further investigation is required to determine if such accounts exist.

50. The Receiver has not yet identified if there are receivables owed to Kodiak recoverable in the United States or the full extent to which property of the Canadian Debtors has been transferred to the US. Further investigation to determine the extent to which each of these exist is required so that the Receiver can secure and realize upon them to fulfill its mandate in the Receivership Proceedings. The Receiver is also in the process of identifying whether there are other assets located in the United States.

51. The Receiver also seeks relief under chapter 15 to protect the Debtors' asset value from diminution due to expropriation of assets or other reasons, termination of executory contracts and unexpired leases (such as the Midland Lease), and other risks to the value of the Property located in the United States, to enable the Receiver to identify United States creditors, and to determine how best to maximize the value of the Property located in the United States and the operations of the Debtors for the benefit of all creditors.

Corporate Ownership

52. An organizational chart detailing corporate ownership of Kodiak is attached as Exhibit A.

MOTIONS

53. In furtherance of the above-outlined objectives, the Receiver expects to file a number of motions and proposed orders and respectfully requests that the Court consider entering the proposed orders granting such motions. I have reviewed each of the motions and proposed orders (including any exhibits thereto) and the facts set forth there are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

A. Verified Petition and Motion for Recognition of a Foreign Proceeding and Additional Provisional and Final Relief

54. The Receiver has filed, concurrently herewith, a motion (the “Recognition Motion”) seeking provisional relief, final relief and final recognition of the Receivership Proceeding as a foreign proceeding. As set forth in the Recognition Motion, this Court should recognize the Receivership Proceeding as a “foreign main proceeding”, as defined in section 1502(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. In the alternative, this Court should recognize the Receivership Proceeding as a “foreign main proceeding” with respect to the Canadian Debtors and a “foreign non-main proceeding”, as defined in section 1502(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, with respect to Kodiak USA.

55. I understand that the Bankruptcy Code provides that a foreign proceeding is a “foreign main proceeding” if it is pending in the country where the debtor has its “center of main interests,” and a foreign proceeding is a “foreign non-main proceeding” if it is pending in the country where the debtor has an “establishment,” defined as a place of operations where the debtor “carries out a nontransitory economic activity.” See 11 U.S.C. §§ 1517(b)(1)-(b)(2), § 1502(2).

56. As set forth above, Canada is the center of main interests for each of the Receivership Parties. At the very least, Canada is the center of main interests for Canadian Debtors, and Kodiak USA maintains nontransitory economic activities in Canada. It is my belief that Canada is the Debtors’ center of main interests, and, accordingly, the Receivership Proceeding should be recognized by the Court as a foreign main proceeding. However, even assuming that Canada is not the center of main interests of Kodiak USA, based on the above description, it is my belief that Kodiak USA clearly has an “establishment” in Canada within the meaning of section 1502(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

57. By the Recognition Motion, the Receiver also requests preliminary relief (a) pursuant to section 1519(a)(1), staying execution against the Debtors’ assets, (b) pursuant to section 1519(a)(2), entrusting the administration or realization of any and all Property located in the US to the Receiver, in order to protect and preserve the value of assets, and (c) pursuant to section 1519(a)(3), suspending the right of any party save the Receiver to transfer, encumber or otherwise dispose of any of the Property located in the US. The Receiver also requests the application of sections 362 and 365(e) (but not any other subsection of Section 365, or Section 365 generally) of the Bankruptcy Code.

58. As explained more fully in the Recognition Motion, such preliminary relief pending the Court’s determinations with respect to recognition of the Receivership Proceeding as a “foreign main proceeding” will protect the Debtors’ creditors and other stakeholders from irreparable harm from dissipation of assets by management, individual creditor action against the Debtors, and/or termination of executory contracts due to either the filing of the Receivership Proceeding or the Chapter 15 Cases. Accordingly, I believe that granting the provisional relief requested in the Recognition Motion is necessary for the successful realization on the Property, and clearly in the Debtors' creditors' best interests.

59. Further, the final relief sought in the Recognition Motion is warranted, necessary and appropriate. The failure to protect the Debtors' assets located in the United States will irreparably harm the Receiver's ability to maximize the value of the Property, on an equitable basis, for all creditors of the Debtors. The proposed relief will ease these concerns and allow for the orderly administration of the Debtors' affairs and equitable resolution of the Debtors' liabilities with supervision by the Canadian Court. A stay of all actions and remedies that could be exercised against the Debtors and protection against automatic termination of contracts will preserve the Debtors' assets for the benefit of their creditors and allow the Receiver to devote its full attention to effectively and efficiently liquidating the Debtors' assets and business.

60. Accordingly, based on the foregoing, I urge the Court to grant the relief requested in the Recognition Motion, as I believe such relief to be vital to a successful monetization of the Property, and in the best interests of the Debtors and their creditors generally.

B. Joint Administration of Cases

61. The Receiver has filed a motion to jointly administer the Chapter 15 Cases (the "Joint Administration Motion"). I believe that joint administration is warranted in these cases. The Debtors are affiliated entities with closely related financial affairs and business operations, and joint administration will ease the administrative burden on the Court and the parties. I anticipate that the various notices, applications, motions, other pleadings, hearings and orders in these cases will affect each of the Receivership Parties. The failure to administer these cases jointly would result in duplicative pleadings and service. Such unnecessary duplication would impose avoidable expenses on all parties.

62. Joint administration will permit this Court to use a single docket for the jointly administered cases and combine notices to creditors and other parties in interest of the Debtors. Joint administration will also protect parties in interest by ensuring that they will be appropriately apprised of all matters. Accordingly, I believe entry of an order granting the relief requested in the Joint Administration Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors and all parties in interest.

C. Motion to Approve Order (I) Shortening Notice and Scheduling an Emergency Hearing on Verified Petition and Motion for Provisional and Final Relief for Recognition of a Foreign Proceeding; (II) Scheduling a Hearing on Chapter 15 Petitions for Recognition and Joint Administration Motion; and (III) Specifying Form and Manner of Service of Notice of Filing of Petitions and Other Pleadings

63. The Receiver has filed a motion (the “Notice Motion”) to (a) shorten notice and schedule an emergency hearing on the Recognition Motion, (b) schedule a hearing on the Chapter 15 Petitions for recognition, the Recognition Motion and the Joint Administration Motion, and (c) specify the form and manner of service of notice of the Chapter 15 Cases, the Recognition Motion, the Joint Administration Motion, and other related pleadings involving the Chapter 15 Cases.

64. The Debtors have creditors, potential creditors, and other parties in interest, all of which need to be provided with, among other things, notice of the filing of these Chapter 15 Cases, the Provisional Relief Order relating to the Recognition Motion (once entered), the proposed Recognition Order relating to the Recognition Motion, the deadline to object to the Recognition Motion, and the hearing on the Recognition Motion. Under the facts and circumstances of the Chapter 15 Cases, it is my belief that service of the notice in the manner proposed in the Notice Motion will provide the Debtors’ various parties in interest due and sufficient notice and service of such matters and any associated objection deadline and hearing dates.

65. Accordingly, I believe entry of an order granting the relief requested in the Notice Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors and all parties in interest.

D. Conclusion

66. Based on the foregoing, which is correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, I believe that the relief requested in the motions is well justified, necessary to a successful Receivership Proceeding, and in the best interests of the Debtors and their creditors and should be granted in full.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.
